A letter from Mexico City, dated 25 January 1949 and addressed to Partido Accion Revolucionaria (PAR) leader Alvaro Hugo Salguero in Guatemala, listed source material on agrarian problems and is believed to indicate that the PAR is considering sponsorship of an agrarian reform law in Guatemala. The letter was written by Otto Raul Gonzales, who represented the Alianza Democratica de la Juventud Guatemalteca (ADJG) at the Mexico City congress of the World Federation of Democratic Youth in 1948. In addition to the publications, Gonzales recommended that Salguero consult the following institutions for information on the agrarian problem:

- Department of Agrarian Matters. Chief, Lic. Mario Sousa
- Alianza de Obreros y Campesinos (Alliance of Workers and Farm Laborers), Netzahualcoyotl No. 9, altos.
- Mexican Communist Party (Dionisio Encina or Fernando G. Cortes).
- CTAL, Plaza de la Republica, Edificio de Pensiones Civiles, 5th Floor.
- Confederacion Nacional Campesina (National Confederation of Farm Laborers).
- Sociedades Ejidales de Credito.
- Banco de Credito Ejidal.
- Banco de la Produccion Agricola. Pres. Chama Davila.
- Zona de la Laguna (regulates the ejidos of the Comarcas Laguneras).
